Q: Is training required to be completed?

A: Yes, all assigned training is required to be completed. Participants are requested to complete each assigned training course within 21 days of assignment. Not only is it important to learn about Ethics and Compliance, but completing your training in a timely manner is a way to show your commitment to our corporate culture of Integrity.

Q: Why am I not receiving training?

A: If you do not have a unique Brink's email address or access to the internet for work, this training is not required to be completed by you. If you feel you meet the criteria, please email compliance@brinkscompany.com to look into your status with the local Human Resources department.

Q: Who do I contact if I have questions about online compliance training?

A: The Brink's online compliance training administrator can be contacted at compliance@brinkscompany.com.

Contact: compliance@brinkscompany.com
